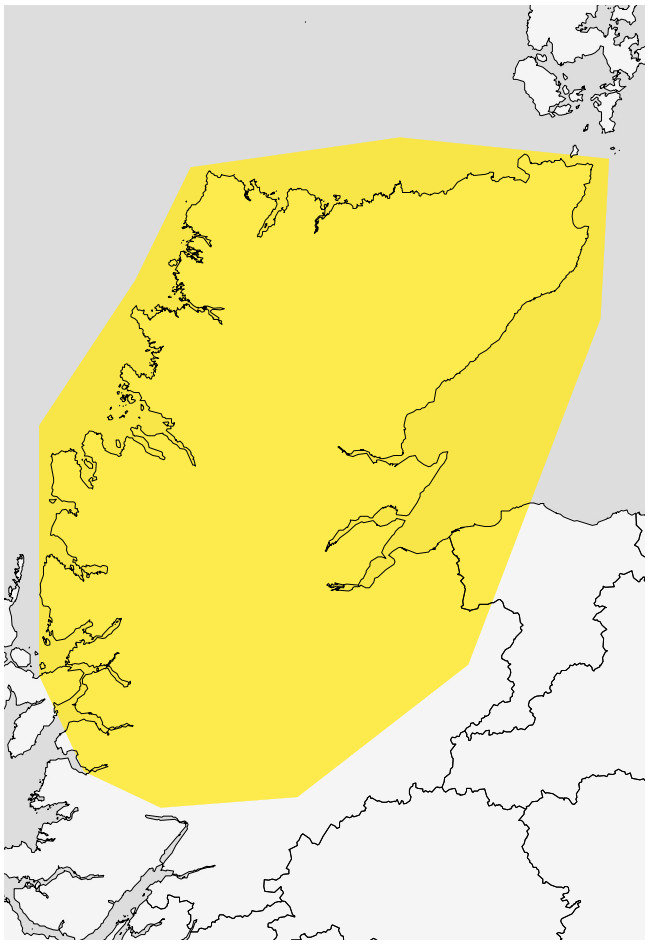
21:00 Mon 29 Jul 2019



Thunderstorms and heavy showers are expected to develop across northwest Scotland this afternoon perhaps causing travel disruption.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures and there is a small chance that some communities become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost

Further details

Whilst not all places will see them, a few slow-moving heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected this afternoon. Where thunderstorms occur, torrential downpours are possible and in a few places as much as 30 to 40 mm rain may occur in an hour or two. Showers and thunderstorms will then ease this evening.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
